E-Day Entrepreneurial Excellence Awards are a tradition in Northwest Indiana since 1991 of recognizing the achievements of outstanding entrepreneurs and small business owners. The awards and event are hosted by the Northwest Indiana Small Business Development Center (NW ISBDC) in partnership with:

- E-Day Steering Committee members, who are from regional universities, legal, business, banking and accounting communities
- E-Day Sponsors
- E-Day media partners

2022 E-Day Entrepreneurial Excellence Awards nominations are welcomed from now until Wednesday, August 24th

Nomination Process: Anyone may nominate an individual or company by submitting a completed nomination form. We have received nominations from chambers of commerce, attorneys, accountants, bankers, customers, employees, trade organizations and other members of the community.

In addition to the completed nomination form, 1-2 good quality digital photos are requested. Letters of recommendation, testimonials, media articles and company materials are welcome as supporting documentation.

Nomination packages may be emailed to northwest@isbdc.org or mailed to the NW ISBDC at 9800 Connecticut Drive, Crown Point, IN 46307. It must be received by Wednesday, August 24th, 2022.

Who is eligible?

- Any individual or company who is classified as a small business under the guidelines of the U. S. Small Business Administration (98% of businesses in Indiana area classified as small)
- Businesses must be located in Northwest Indiana's seven-county area (Lake, Porter, La Porte, Starke, Jasper, Pulaski and Newton counties).

E-Day Entrepreneurial Award Categories:

- Small Business Person of the Year
- Entrepreneurial Success
- Small Business Exporter
- Young Entrepreneur
- Small Business Advocate
- Advocate for Youth Entrepreneurship
- Minority-owned Small Business Person
- Family-Owned Business

These categories have some eligibility requirements specific to the category.

Financial Information:

Summary financial information is a necessary part of the nomination package in order to evaluate a company's strength and growth. We request only summary financial information for the past three years and do not require financial statements.

Selection Process:

The E-Day Steering Committee reviews all nominations and selects the recipients for each category. Committee decisions are based on the track record of growth and growth potential of the company, overall economic impact of the business (in terms of investment, job creation), innovation, how the company has handled adversity, and community contributions

Confidentiality:

The NW ISBDC and the E-Day Entrepreneurial Awards Committee take great care to ensure that all nomination information remains confidential. All committee members sign a non-disclosure agreement. The NW ISBDC destroys confidential information when the process is completed.

The Nomination Packet

All nominations must be typewritten into the fillable form available at www.edayleaders.com or in a document that contains the items below. Incomplete nominations will not be considered.

All evaluation/selection criteria must be addressed specifically (see guidelines for each category). A complete nomination packet will include:

1. COVER SHEET (included in packet)

- The Award for which the nomination is being made
- The nominee's full name, title, business and home addresses with telephone and e-mail
- The nominator's name, title, place of business, business address, telephone and e-mail
- A statement regarding any SBA assistance that has been provided (example, received a 7(a) loan, or received business counseling from SBDC)
- Brief description of the nominee's business

2. PHOTOGRAPHS

One-two original photos of the nominee. We prefer two digital photos emailed to northwest@isbdc.org at least 300 dpi; photocopies are not acceptable. Additional photos of the nominee's company and employees are helpful.

3. NOMINATION FORM

Fillable form with questions related to each award category.

4. SUPPORTING DOCUMENTATION (not to exceed 10 pages) requested

Any other supporting documentation deemed significant by the nominator, including news clips, letters of recommendation and other evidence of the appropriateness of the nomination.
